

East Grinstead Evening News reporter's notebook

Interview with Laurie Holmes - July 1943 (Air Raid section)

What were you doing when the German plane came over?

How did you know that the shop had been hit?

What happened to the building when the bomb exploded?

You sound as if you think you were lucky to have survived the blast. Why do you think that?

Air Raid section

East Grinstead Evening News reporter's notebook

Interview with Laurie Holmes - July 1943 (Rescue 1 section)

You were pinned down by the blast. What did that feel like?

Apparently there was something really dangerous on fire next door. What was that?

The ambulance drivers who brought you into the hospital said you were soaking wet. Why was that?

Rescue 1 section

East Grinstead Evening News reporter's notebook

Interview with Laurie Holmes - July 1943 (Rescue 2 section)

Who eventually got you out of the rubble?

When did you know that you had been seen and were going to be rescued?

What happened when the doctor came along?

What happened when the rescue team started to get you out of the wreckage.

What did the rescue team have to do to get you out?

Rescue 2 section

East Grinstead Evening News reporter's notebook

Interview with Laurie Holmes - July 1943 (Rescue 3 section)

What are your injuries from the blast, Mr Holmes?

What happened when you were transferred to the Redhill Hospital?

Did you manage to get a good night's sleep in the hospital?

Rescue 3 section

East Grinstead Evening News reporter's notebook

Interview with Laurie Holmes - July 1943 (Rescue 4 section)

Who visited you from Sainsbury what did they say to you?

Do you know what happened to Florence, the person you were talking to when the raid began?

Do you know what happened to any of your other workmates?

Rescue 4 section